COMMONER
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART,
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL,
AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH,
AND WITH ALL THY MIND;
AND THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF.
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD ...
WITH ALL THY HEART
During the course of a year we learn many things about ourselves through people. Our interactions with others teach us, help us, shape us and even break us. There is no doubt that we are left profoundly affected by these contacts. Acquaintances broaden our perspective, true friends touch our hearts and even life-time mates may be met who help to fulfill God’s plan for our lives. But hopefully, above all, we become intimate with the only true and complete fulfiller of our needs, the Lord Jesus.
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART ...
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL
If the soul is, indeed, the essence of our being, then the command to love the Lord with all your soul is an all-encompassing action. As we seek at Bryan to build well-rounded Christian people we must not rely entirely upon the Christian curriculum, chapel speakers, Day of Prayer, cell groups or even Christian friends. With our basis for life being sound and with love in our soul for Him who created every good thing, we find new meaning in these often otherwise meaningless activities. There is new meaning to life as we fall more in love with Him.
THOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART,
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL . . .
AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH
A life honoring to God involves dedication in every area. Sports are a big part of many lives here at Bryan. Strength that honors the Lord involves gentleness. True strength is not threatened and can act kindly. Using strength in a way that shows the love of Jesus can often be a difficult task, especially in the midst of an emotion-packed game. Striving, however, to fulfill every area of this command of love can make a contest of strength an event of honor to our Lord.
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD WITH ALL THY HEART, AND WITH ALL THY SOUL, AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH ...
AND WITH ALL THY MIND
A Christian liberal arts education is intended to develop people in all areas, preparing them for the world that awaits. This concept of a well rounded person did not begin at Bryan or even with the very first Christian liberal arts college. Jesus commanded us to develop our heart, soul, strength and mind through love for Him. Academics is obviously an important area for those of us attending this institution. Our devotion and dedication to the acquiring of knowledge should be channeled through the Source of supreme knowledge. After all, the "fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." Proverbs 1:7
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD WITH ALL THY HEART, AND WITH ALL THY SOUL, AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL THY MIND ...
AND THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF.
ARRIVAL

We are people who yearn for development. To be true to ourselves and our God requires constant growth, learning and changing. College can be a means through which these processes become reality. Arrival at school marks a new era of one's life. Without a doubt—college is a challenge.
ALL COLLEGE PICNIC
A day of fun for the entire college family
"Through the Golden Doors of Opportunity" walked the freshmen and transfers as this year's President's Reception took place. What is intended to be a serious and formal evening turns up some of the best and longest remembered humor of the year.
INITIATION

Welcoming the freshmen to Bryan College through the most mature methods imaginable has become tradition. Initiation is truly a night to be remembered by both the participants and the observers.
No sweat, J.T., we'll figure this Greek out!

One, click ... two, click ... three o'clock, click!

T.V.? It never interferes with my studies!

Strict Room
Steve Martin? ... Never heard of him!

You'll make a lovely Christmas tree!
Don't worry, dear. You're BEE-U-TEE-FULL!

What lovely greasemarks on my paper!

I probably won't get to taste this one either!

Well, partner, ya gotta get in the mood to study.

Behind the scenes the Bryan Women's Auxiliary performs many important functions that are known to few of us. The showing of the film series "How Should We Then Live" was a project of the BWA, along with curtains for the dining hall and helping with the engaged couples' retreat. Most appreciated, however, is their never-ending task of making our birthdays away from home more special. Thanks for the cakes, ladies.
STUDENT UNION

OFFICERS (L. to R): FRONT ROW: L. Snyder, Publicity Manager; P. Eggert, Vice President of Activities; Colonel Sanders; B. Grosser, Vice President of Personnel. BACK ROW: M. Ammerman, President; C. Bryan, Secretary; M. Kirtley, Treasurer.
ENTERTAINMENT—anything from car pushes in timed competition to ice skating to Christian concerts. Student union covers the spectrum.

JUNIOR - SENIOR BANQUET
The junior class outdid themselves this year as they presented "Horizons" to the graduating class of 1979. Horizons appear before us exposing glimpses of splendor and hurt, but with Jesus our horizons hold the assurance of joy unacclaimed.
CONFERENCES
At the start of each semester students attend a number of meetings that, applied to each aspect of life, will help them grow as people, better equipping them for college life and life beyond. Arnold Olsen spoke at the Spiritual Life Conference this fall. The speakers for the Christian Life Conference in the spring were Sam Dalton and Mark Corts. Highlighting the spring conference was the special music by Kim Wickes.
Once every semester a day is set aside for prayer. God reveals Himself through our prayers as we experience this intimate communion with Him.
DAY OF PRAYER
CHAPELS
To know God is the eternal quest.
Chapel services provide a time to learn from the words of others and then, hopefully, to go beyond the words of men to find the Truth of God.
CELL GROUPS

Cell groups provide an opportunity to grow in the knowledge of each other and of God. There are many cells which contain a nucleus of people within the Bryan body. So it is with the body of Christ.
PRACTICAL CHRISTIAN INVOLVEMENT

Director: Bill Bauer
PCI presents God as a reality to all who desire an immovable foundation. Our Lord is no respecter of persons—or age.

STUDENT WORKERS
Working may not be the most exciting aspect of college, but for some it provides the extra money needed to make it through. Besides, who'd want to miss all the great outdoor fun... getting to know the Argos... all that experience...
Intramurals—a great break from the studies.
INTRAMURALS

CHEERLEADERS

CAPTAINS: T. Blatter, C. Watkins
ENTHUSIASM—Rain or shine, Victory or defeat.
After capturing three consecutive NCCAA titles, the soccer team decided to step down for a year and placed fourth at the nationals. We hope a one year sabbatical is enough. Watch out for next year!

CAPTAIN: Kathy McReynolds
Despite difficulties in organizing a relatively new team this year, the girls managed to place second in the SCAC. Our usual number-one volleyball team is on the move for next year.
WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Captain: S. Stack
1979—Second place SCAC
1980—Watch out world!

MEN’S BASKETBALL

CAPTAINS: M. Mosley and W. Johnson with Coach Dixon.
A tough season and third in the SCAC.
CROSS COUNTRY
"Running the good race" in the case of the cross country team is taken quite literally. They ran into second place this year in the SCAC.

BASEBALL

W. Chapman, Asst. Coach; Coach Dixon; B. Chapman, Captain.
The baseball team slid into a 7 and 11 season.

TENNIS
CAPTAINS: D. Bruner, D. Sligh
The women’s team lost the serve this season with a 0 and 5 record. The men’s team did slightly better, pulling two wins and eight losses.

SOFTBALL

Coach Tayloe and Captain Sandy
The Lionettes ended their season on a winning note and captured second place in the state tournament.
ATHLETIC BANQUET

Sports was the honored guest as this year's athletes were recognized.

STUDENT SENATE

OFFICERS (TOP TO BOTTOM): R. Ruark, President; T. Branson, Vice President; D. Zopfi, Business Manager; L. Anderson, Secretary.
LEADERSHIP: An essential element in any institution.
The weekly student newspaper, formerly called THE HILLTOPPER, was revived this year as THE TRIANGLE. It is an important asset to the student body, providing an opportunity for students interested in writing and journalism to further their abilities, as well as giving the college family a well-written source of information. Thanks for the tangible memories.

Concert choir, led by Mr. Friberg, followed a busy schedule this year, climaxing with a tour over spring break that found them singing praises to our God throughout many of the northern states.
OFFICERS: (L to R): K. Beck, Librarian; K. Alotti, Secretary; T. Castlen, President.
Praise him with sound of the trumpet;
Praise him with the psaltery and harp.
Praise him with the timbrel and dance;
Praise him with stringed instruments and organs.
Praise him upon the loud cymbals;
Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.
Praise ye the Lord.

GRADUATION
The fulfillment of dreams accompanied by tears and laughter. Graduation brings a hopeful expectancy of the future.
How would you like yours seasoned with a dash of Africa, Latin America, South Seas, or as they make it on a mountaintop in Central Asia? There are many varieties. Some 3000 small tribal nations need to feast on the Word of God. Learn how you can help "cook up" a Bible translation for one of these.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I would like to take this little space to quietly thank all those who allowed themselves to be used by the Lord in order to help put this book together. First I want to especially thank my wonderful staff for the enormous amount of help they so willingly offered. I could hardly have asked the Lord for a better staff. Along with the staff I would also like to thank J.T., Chris, Priscilla, Kathy, Billy and all those others who lent a helping hand in the photography department when things got tight. Thank you, Mr. Robinson, for your constant guidance along the way and Bruce for being the most helpful and caring yearbook representative we've ever had. Thank you, Chris, for the long hours you put into the painting for our theme. Thank you to those many others of you who helped in many different ways throughout the year.

Above all I thank God for coming through (as always) on His Word which we claimed in Psalms 138:8, "The Lord will accomplish what concerns me."

Our primary goal was that this book glorify our Lord Jesus Christ. He is our Inspiration.

Paul M. LeValle
"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

THIS DO, AND THOU SHALT LIVE."
THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD WITH ALL THY HEART, AND WITH ALL THY SOUL, AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL THY MIND; AND THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF.
